WHO IS READY FOR SOME BASKETBALL?

Danville Area Visitor's Bureau, Danville Area Community College and the entire Danville community are proud to welcome the NJCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship back to our city! From March 16–21, 2026, 20 of the nation's finest junior college teams will compete for the national title at the Mary Miller Center—marking the 33rd consecutive year Danville hosts this prestigious tournament.

Danville's exceptional tradition, support from local businesses, and a dedicated volunteer base have made our city a standout host. We're once again honored by the NJCAA's trust in our capabilities and thrilled to continue showcasing top-tier student-athlete excellence. To players, coaches, and fans—welcome back to where greatness is made, memories are forged, and champions are crowned. Let the 2026 NJCAA Division II Championship tip off with heart, hospitality, and hometown pride!
