Delconne to Danville and Vermilion County

Here you will find world class museums, shops full of rare and unique finds, and watchable wildlife to enjoy. From our nationally recognized Danville Dans baseball team to our NJCAA Division II Men's National Basketball Championship, to ice skating, canoeing. Horeback riding, roller skating and more, there's plenty to see and do during your visit. Over 15,000 acres of parklands are highlighted by the Middle Fork Nationally designated Scenic River. Our special events run year round, from Arts in the Park, to Festival of Trees, to Balloons Over Vermillion, to Summer Sound, Symphony Concerts, Light Opera, and plays, the list goes on and on.

Thirty-nine murals grace brick walls in Danville/Vermilion County, telling tales of heroes and history. The project began with 18 murals painted in 4 days by 160 Walldog artists from all over the world. Local artists carry on the tradition, sharing their amazing talent, and creating murals that tell our stories and draw visitors from far and wide.

Donald O' Connor

Donald O' Connor first appeared on stage as an infant at the Fischer Theatre. At the age of 12, O'Connor got his first break in the movies playing the little brother of Fred MacMurray and Bing Cosby in Sing You Sinners. He is probably most known for his great performance with Gene Kelly and Debbie Reynolds in Singin' in the Rain and his lead role in the Francis the Talking Mule movies series.

Gene Hackman

Gene Hackman made his movie debut in 1964 as Buck Barrow in Bonnie and Clyde. He has gone on to star in over 80 films, a few of the most notable; Hoosiers, The French Connection, The Poseidon Adventure, and Mississippi Burning. Hackman has been nominated for 5 Academy Awards, winning two.

Dick Van Dyke

The actor, comedian, writer, producer, author, song and dance man has a career spanning 6 decades. Some of his noted works included a lead role in Broadway's Bye Bye Birdie, as Bert in film's Mary Poppins, and Rob Petrie in television's The Dick Van Dyke Show. Dick Van Dyke began his career as a radio DJ on Danville's WDAN (1490) radion station. His body of work earned him multiple Emmy Awards, a Golden Globe nomination, a Grammy and a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Jerry Van Dyke

From the night club circuit to television, song and dance man Jerry Van Dyke's comedic talent led him to many roles and appearances in a variety of long running television series. Among those were The Judy Garland Show, The Mary Tyler Moore Shoe, Love American Style, and Fantasy Island. He was best known, however, for his role in the series, Coach. His portrayal of the beloved, yet befuddled Luther Van Dam, garnered him four consecutive Emmy nominations. He was also known as a talented 4-string banjo musician. Jerry Van Dyke passed away at the age of 86 on January 5, 2018.

Bobby Short

Bobby Short began his professional piano career at the age of 11. Considered the world's foremost interpreter of Cole Porter, Short's blend of jazz and blues has been heard in venues from the White House to Carnegie Hall. He played at New York's posh Café Carlyle for over 25 years, and was often featured in cameo movie and television appearances.

LOCAL FINDS

Danville and Vermilion County are becoming well known for their wall murals. It began with a Walldog sign painter's reunion held here in the summer of 2010, when approximately 125 artists came from as far away as New Zealand and British Columbia to transform downtown Danville, literally overnight. More murals popped up in Danville, and other Vermilion County towns, illustrating our area's pride in our history and art.

Note: Original Walldog Murals are designated as such.

To check for updates or arrange a group tour of the initial murals, email info@danvilleareainfo.com, or call 217-442-2096.

VERMILION COUNTY, ILLINOIS

A bustling river town was the dream of Dan Beckwith when he first came to Vermilion County. Beckwith donated twenty acres of the first eighty and platted the town into lots north and south of Main Street, and east and west of Vermilion.

Amidst the chants of auctioneer Harvey Luddington, on a warm morning on April 10, 1827, the town of Danville was born. The new county seat was established, and brave entrepreneurs attend the sale and settlement of the first forty-two lots.

Coal mining, railroading, and manufacturing, Danville has had them all. Today, nestled within the area of natural beauty and abundant resources, Danville still has a lot to offer those who follow in the paths of the first settlers.

Vermilion County was established January 18, 1826 and comprises 898 square miles. Danville is the county seat. Vermilion County is served by a number of commercial rail routes, as well as Interstate 74 and the Vermilion County Regional Airport.
